

Miguel Marques Short Bio

Miguel Marques, as PwC Partner, leads the PwC's Economy of the Sea Global Center of Excellence, which is focused on blue growth, the promotion of economic development, creation of new jobs and protection of the environment, through sea industries like shipping, ports, shipbuilding and other industries. He's particularly focused on family businesses related to sea activities, as they have the perfect "patient capital" profile to invest in blue businesses that develop over a longer period of time.

A subject matter expert on the blue economy, Miguel is author of more than 70 economy of the sea reports and studies (e.g. HELM – PwC Economy of the Sea Barometer World) and regularly speaks at conferences and other events, attends meetings with shareholders, boards of directors, and senior management, around the world, sharing insights and best practices. He is regularly invited as keynote speaker in relevant international blue economy forums and has also been featured in a number of reputable journals and newspapers.

Miguel Marques has a degree in Economics from Porto University (Porto – Portugal), has a Post-graduation in Real-estate Management from Porto Business School (Porto – Portugal), has an Executive Course in Leadership from Lisbon Catholic University (Lisbon – Portugal), has Executive Courses in Family Business from INSEAD (Fontainebleau - France) and from Kellogg Northwestern University (Chicago – EUA) and is Chartered Accountant. He is member of several advisory boards of entities related to the ocean.
